

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

GLK Foods Expands into Canadian Market with OH SNAP![®] Single-Serve Pickles

Where no pickle has gone before...

Appleton, Wis. (July 16, 2018): GLK Foods is pleased to announce the expansion of distribution into the Canadian market for their top selling OH SNAP! Dilly Bites and Hottie Bites – fresh dill pickle snacking cuts packed with no added brine - an innovative process that delivers superior crunch, great taste, and less mess.

“We are extremely excited to build on the phenomenal success of our OH SNAP! brand in the States and introduce our Dilly Bites and Hottie Bites to Canadian consumers,” says Ryan M. Downs, President. “On-the-go snacking continues to grow and we are proud to offer a convenient, better-for-you snacking option that consumers are looking for.”

GLK Foods is partnering with Piller’s Fine Foods for distribution in Canada, one of Canada’s leading brands in deli meats and European sausages.

###

About GLK Foods

GLK Foods is a 4th generation, family-owned company. For over 100 years, they have been making the finest quality kraut, growing to become the largest kraut producer in the world. The maker of America’s top-selling brands, GLK Foods continues to be the leader in food product innovation and is committed to giving consumers choice, convenience, and quality in all their products. For more information, visit glkfoods.com.

About Piller’s Fine Foods

Piller’s Fine Foods is one of North America’s leading manufacturers of specialty European deli meats with more than 600 employees. Its corporate headquarters, production plant and distribution center are located in Waterloo, Ontario, with operations in Brantford and Arthur, ON. More information is available at www.pillers.com.

Media Contact:

Char Van Vreede
920-560-6459
cvanvreede@glkfoods.com